The immigration authorities will use the information in this application form to process the permit for which you are applying. The information will be registered in the computer system for immigrant and refugee cases (DUF).

Your information may be passed on to other relevant authorities in order to check and obtain more details of the information you have given. Where necessary, information about you will also be collected from other Norwegian and foreign authorities, including the police. This will not be carried out where consideration for your safety so determines. If you are granted a permit, information on this will be entered in the National Population Register.

You can contact UDI for more information about our use of your details, your right of inspection in this regard and how you can ask for the details to be changed. You will find more information about the treatment of your personal details at www.udi.no.

I hereby confirm that the information given in this application is correct and complete. I am aware that, under the General Civil Penal Code, act no. 10 of 22 May 1902, section 166 and the Immigration Act, act no. 64 of 24 June 1988, section 47, first paragraph, sub-paragraph b, it is a punishable offence to give materially incorrect or clearly misleading information, including omission of information of material significance. In addition to criminal charges, breach of the Immigration Act or the Norwegian Penal Code may lead to rejection or expulsion and registration in the Schengen Information System (SIS). Any permit granted based on incorrect or incomplete information may be withdrawn.
